DEVELOPING GOOD ROADS PROBLEM OF NEXT PRESIDENT

IN THE OPINION OF SENATOR W.
G. HARDING TO SOLVE THE TRANSPORTATION
PROBLEM

RAYMOND CLAPPER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Marion, Ohio, July 28—The problem of developing good roads and encouraging transportation by motor trucks as a supplement to railroads will be one of the tasks of the next administration in the opinion of Senator Harding.

Amplifying his declaration for better roadways made in his acceptance speech the republican nominee outlined his view in detail, writing to the national association of motor truck salesmen at Chicago.

"The obvious tendency to supplant public transportation facilities by a much more extended use of improved highways and power motor trucks is so apparent that it can not be doubted. In the future we will more and more rely on this mode of transportation. It is going to mean the necessity for further credit advance toward improvement of road construction and particularly the adequate maintenance of highways."

PLENTY OF LABOR FOR THE HARVEST IN THE NORTHWEST

(United Press)
St. Paul, July 26—There will be plenty of labor for harvest in the northwest, N. J. Holmberg, state commissioner of agriculture, declared today. A large army of men is moving north with the harvest and besides hundreds of men are coming to the small grain fields from Michigan and Wisconsin. It was said. Wages are running from $4.50 to $5.00 a day during haying, but will probably run higher during the small grain harvest.

TIE UP OF ILLINOIS COAL MINES EXPECTED

(United Press)
Chicago, July 26—With a one hundred per cent tie up of Illinois mines today anticipated, Illinois coal operators were reported preparing an appeal to President Wilson for the reestablishment of a federal bituminous coal commission to consider the wage question. Operators declared their belief in an increase for day workers would be necessary before the strike could be ended.

Conciliators today were preparing to obtain a hearing to end the strike. They expect to question Frank Harrington, president of the Illinois miners and other unionists.

AND STILL IT'S THE CAPE

By Freak of Fashion, the Once Popular Garment Now Is Playing Return Engagement.

"I am going to have a summer evening cape of rose-colored kumukuma," declared a pretty girl at the silk counter. "And I'm not going to line it—just let it float. This will make three capes I'm taking away with me for the summer."

By all of which, one knows that no wrap is so stylish this summer as the cape.

Just about a year ago Dame Fashion announced dolmans for spring. Of course, everyone bought dolmans. In less than three months everyone was sorry. The dolman faded from the fashion picture. And then at about the point where you had your ripped apart and made into a sure enough coat, along comes the dolman and cape decree again.

The wraps of this year are not so different from those first ones of last spring, except that there are more varieties of the wrap, which is neither a cape nor a coat. They are fascinating in their possibilities, and the very nicest thing that could happen for summer wearing. Many are sleeveless, having slits for the hands, while others do not even have slits, nor fastenings, but are meant to be held closely about one.

All materials are being used for these stylish new wraps. Navy blue serge and tulle are popular, and always look conservative, no matter what the cut. Bolivia cloth fashions many, as do duvety and velours. Silks are very good for the summer wrap, and one sees knee-length and tapering ankle-length wraps of heavy satin, crepe de chine, and shorter ones of taffeta.

POLISH-RUSSIAN WAR WILL BECOME CAMPAIGN ISSUE

BOTH PARTIES GATHERING DATA OF CONFLICT TO USE IN THE CAMPAIGN ARGUMENTS

(United Press)
Washington, July 26—Poland threatens to become an issue in the presidential campaign. Republican and democratic scouts it was learned today, have been busy in Washington ever since beginning of the bolshevik drive on Poland gathering matter to be used as arguments for and against the adoption of the league of nations when the campaign gets under way.

Both have data gleaned from the state department and embassy information. Republicans say if the United States had entered the league of nations it would have been called upon to send men and money into just such wars as occurred between the soviets and Poland.

But to this the democrats say that with America in the league the Polish-Bolshevik war would not have occurred.

With the assurance of a strong league behind her she would not have been called upon to take up arms against the bolsheviks.

MOTHER ADVERTISES TO SELL HER CHILD

STRUGGLING AGAINST POVERTY AND ILL HEALTH SHE IS FORCED TO TAKE STEP

(By United Press)
New York, July 26—"For sale—Young widow will part with lovely two and a half year old girl. Irish parentage. $250 absolutely necessary as mother is in poor health."

That is the story Katherine McNully, a pretty dark haired twenty-nine year old mother said today when questioned about the advertisement inserted in the papers here.

Many bids had been received for the curly haired Margaret, who played around the tiny clean room. Brave at first, the little mother loathes to give up her child, and so far has refused offers.

The mother's story was one of a losing struggle against poverty and sickness. Her husband died three years ago. She struggled bravely to care for her two children, Martin and Margaret, and was successful until last spring when she was taken ill.

AN ORGANIZATION PLANNED TO FIX FARM LABOR WAGE

(By United Press)
Aberdeen, S. D., July 26—That a well organized movement is on foot to fix a standard scale of farm labor wages was evident by a meeting of the Brown County Threshermen's association here today.

Labor agencies in this vicinity report a plentiful supply of harvesters, but allege the men will not accept any terms less than seventy cents an hour. Similar conditions prevail over the greater portion of the state and organization of farm and threshermen are being formed in many other counties along the line of the Brown county association to establish a uniform scale as to laborers and farmers.

Signs of Weather Changes.
If a horse is lively without apparent cause, it is a sure sign of cold weather in the near future, but if he stretches out his neck and sniffs it is a sign of rain. If a cat sneezes or sits with its back to the fire it will rain. If she washes her face during a frost it will soon thaw. If she scratches the wall or the leg of a table vigorously the wind will be very high. If asses bray it is another sign of rain.

DEMAND PUBLICITY OF CAMPAIGN CONTRI- BUTIONS AND EXPENSE

HERBERT WALKER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Dayton, July 26—The democratic nominee will demand that a list of all campaign expenditures as well as contributions be submitted at least weekly to the Kenyon senatorial committee for investigation, Governor J. M. Cox said here today.

Cox has stated he desires the committee to be reorganized as soon as possible and to continue in session during the campaign.

Plans for this "pitiless publicity" of the big war chests of both parties will be discussed by the nominee today and tomorrow with Senator Pomerene of Ohio, one of the democratic members of the committee. Cox indicated he intended to press the investigation of the committee expenditures and would demand an inquiry into state as well as national funds.

With campaign costs on the same level as the cost of living, leaders admitted today, may be hard sledding for both parties to secure funds to carry on as extensive a battle as was waged in 1916.

Burnquist indicated he favors the plan. The money could be used to make up the difference to bankers between the market value and face value of certificates of indebtedness. It could be used to pay more soldier bonuses. When the board paid out some additional bonuses today the funds left to its credit were cut to about $40,000.

FIFTH CUP RACE IS DRIFTING MATCH- RESOLUTE AHEAD

WITH A SHIFTING BREEZE SO LIGHT THAT YACHTS MERELY DRIFTED RACE WILL BE A FLUKE

Aboard the U. S. Destroyer Goldsborough, by wireless to the United Press, July 26—The fifth race for the American yachting cup developed into a drifting contest today.

With a breeze which came first out of the north and then switched to the south but never increased to more than four knots, the two contenders drifted down the Jersey coast.

Two hours after getting under way Resolute which was leading, was still twenty-five miles from the finish—ten miles from her buoy. Shamrock had led across the starting line by fifty six seconds. After the signal to start the contest had been delayed half an hour in the hopes of a stable breeze.

The Shamrock immediately crossed with the Resolute at her heels. The yachts ran about five miles off their course when Captain Adams jibbed. Shamrock held on too long and got too close to the land losing the breeze. Resolute then gained a lead of a quarter of a mile. The situation changed however and Shamrock picked up a better slant off shore and gained more than a quarter of a mile on Resolute.

The wind continued light the yachts about eight miles from the mark.

America Uses 700 Billion Matches. Few realize the immense labor, capital and material used to produce matches. Thousands of men are employed, millions of dollars invested and vast forests cut down to meet the demand in America of 700 billion matches a year. One plant alone on the Pacific coast covers 240 acres and uses two hundred thousand feet of sugar pine and yellow pine logs in a day. The odds and ends will not do. A constant search is in progress for large forests of perfect trees to meet the future needs.—F. H. Chetley in "Stories for Talks to Boys."

IN FALL CLOTHES

Milady's Garb Must Be Very Tight or Very Loose.

No Happy Medium Is Indicated by Styles Arriving in Larger Cities From Paris.

It's time to start altering last year's clothes for next fall, or saving money for new ones, advises a New York fashion correspondent. The female finery districts of the larger cities are now receiving the first shipments of Parisian fall styles.

Suits and coats have changed materially from those of the last winter season. In suits, the new features are choker or Robespierre collars, long, hip-reducing coats, lavish fur and pile fabric trimmings, and loose mandarin coat and kimono sleeve.

Black Satin With Embroidered Surplice.

A typical model for the fall of 1920, much copied in shop windows, comes in navy blue furs. The jacket is cut like a loose kimono with deep armholes extending into flowing sleeves which fall over tight, long cuffs of moleskin; a close-fitting choker collar is also used. The kimono jacket is belted at the back, but shorter and fuller than those of yesterday.

Although a majority of the new suits seem to be variations of this mandarin type, a shipment from one leading Parisian house employs the fitted basque jacket with Robespierre collar and light, fitted sleeves. But there is no happy medium. The autumnal garb of milady of fashion must be either very loose or very tight.

Anything to Sell, Buy or Exchange? ADVERTISE

If the general effect is one of tightness, then the long glove fitting coat is used. This is often trimmed with braid or wool embroideries, trailing from the lapel to the end of the coat. Vests or gilets are still used, but are quite eccentric and entirely free from frilly feminine blandishments. Many suits are made with white kid vests embroidered in silk or metallic threads. Vests of the same material quite gay with colored stenciling are also seen.

The strictly tailored suit skirt of the spring suits alternates in favor with the drapy, peg-topped ones that almost billow about the shetops. Fur bottoms are on many of the skirts, and, in fact, fur is profusely scattered over all the more expensive suits. Plush and fabric imitations abound on the cheaper suits, collars, cuffs and even belts are made of fur alone. Suit materials are velvets, plushes, velours de laine and duvetyne, black, blue, gray and brown are the leading colors.

EGYPTIAN SHADES IN FAVOR

Ancients Had Well-Developed Ideas of Colors and Wonderful Knowledge of Line.

Thousands of years ago Egypt was the center of the world's art and learning; long before the Greeks had achieved civilization this ancient race knew much of astronomy and geometry. It is within their pyramid-like tombs that we find the first known traces of linen.

Their sense of color was well developed, and the draped garments of their women showed a wonderful knowledge of line. This summer among the season's popular shades are Egyptian red, blue and yellow, while among the smartest of the frocks and wraps are those which show a decided Egyptian influence.

Hats, too, reveal this same touch, the winged globe, that sacred symbol before which the ancient Egyptian bent the knee, often forming the motif for the beaded or embroidered ornaments which bedecked them.

The Finest Coatings. The finest coatings are heavy pile bolivia and velvet lounge.

Alsation Petroleum Wells. Alsation petroleum wells have been worked for 150 years and the deposits are now the only ones in the world to be worked by shafts.

BABIES UP TO AGE 5 IN CLINIC

Baby Clinic Will be Held in Elks Hall in the Citizens State Bank Building Wednesday

HOURS 9 TO NOON, 1 to 4 P. M.

Babies May be Weighed at Public Health Nurse Office in the City Hall Before Clinic

Any mother who has not been able to get to the Public Health Nurses office to have her baby weighed and measured may have this done at the time of the baby clinic next Wednesday at Elks hall over the Citizens State bank.

The clinic will be held from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and from 1 p. m. to 4 p. m. and is conducted by leading baby specialists of the state. These clinics are for everyone, rich and poor alike.

Miss Beyer, city and school nurse will be in attendance assisted by ladies from the different wards. Many mothers are following out directions given at the previous clinic under the supervision of the nurse, with marked good results.

The clinics are put on by the state organization in the interest of better babies, and that handicaps may be discovered and overcome before school age. Mal-nutrition occurs more frequently among the children of well-to-do parents than among those less favored, due to improper habits of eating. Children are admitted at these clinics up to five years of age.

Any woman seeing this notice who is interested in the promotion of health among children is asked to interest mothers in her neighborhood who have young children to bring them to the clinic.

Keep Up to the Mark

Good health is impossible when the kidneys are weak, overworked or diseased. When they fail to filter out of the blood the poisons and impurities that cause sore and swollen muscles and joints, backache, rheumatic pains, take Foleys Kidney Pills to give the help they need. H. P. Dunn, druggist.

Opium Production.

Opium is the product of the poppy which only grows to perfection in a tropical or sub-tropical climate. The part of the British empire that produces the most opium is India, and there production is restricted. The poppy may now be grown by individuals or private companies only in the united provinces, Agra and Oudh, and in the central Indian native states. Except in those states the manufacture of opium is a government monopoly.

Foolish Waste.

Doing a thing poorly now with the intention of doing it over later, wastes not only time and effort, but character as well.

Unfair to Both Parties

When you ask for a standard article in its line and a substitute or imitation is forced upon you, two parties are wronged by the transaction—youself and the maker of the article you wanted. It pays to get genuine Foley Kidney Pills for backache, rheumatic pains and other symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. H. P. Dunn, druggist.

Railroad Mystery.

Why does a train that starts out from a station as if it were really going somewhere, suddenly stop? It never goes far enough so that it couldn't have known beforehand that it might have to stop at that particular place. This being so, why doesn't the train wait until it is assured that it will go on without stopping? Nobody knows. Probably nobody will ever know.—Life.

USE ORGANDIE WITH TAFFETA

Combination Mode Not Only Smart, but Adds Simplicity Which American Women Like.

Organdie has found new uses and a new cachet this summer. No longer does it confine its fresh crisp charm to accessories and a few simple afternoon frocks for young girls. Today it allies itself with taffeta to make the most becoming of formal afternoon frocks.

At the Autoull races, writes the director of the Harper's Bazar's Paris bureau, have appeared the most effective black taffeta frocks, which open at every conceivable point over an organdie underdress. The taffeta skirt not only parts in front over a plaited organdie skirt, but it is slit again upon the hips. The organdie skirt falls below the taffeta. Snowy frills fly out from the throat and often cup the face. The effect is so smart that every Parisienne has at least one such frock.

Sometimes the taffeta and organdie are reversed. Then the sheer fine organdie in ocre, rose or cream-white is used over a black taffeta slip, opening enough in front to show a taffeta panel.

The taffeta organdie mode is not only smart, but it has in addition to distinction the charm of simplicity, which all American women like.

THE PROFITEER IN FRANCE

When the courts get through with a profiteer in France he knows that he has had his day in those courts. They do not merely impose a mild little fine on him, which he can pay without a twinge and let it go at that. They leave him so tied up in a maze of fines, imprisonments, and superpenalties that he must be a determined and courageous profiteer indeed if he resumes the profiteering business at the old stand.

The members of three of the large provision firms in Paris are cases in point. These enterprising gentlemen foresaw a drop in the prices of certain provisions because the markets were getting full supplies in increasing volume. This did not suit the plans and calculations of the profiteers. It did not meet their ideals of patriotic service to their stricken country. So they sent "rush" telegrams to all the centres of supply, countermanding all their orders then placed.

This gave them at once a wide, if not an enviable celebrity throughout France. The "rush" telegrams were published broadcast in the newspapers. Then the courts took a hand in the matter. They wanted to know all about it. Moreover, they did, in the end, know all about it, with unpleasant results to the profiteers. In addition to fines of very large amounts, the profiteering gentlemen were sent to prison for from two to three months. And, even there, their unpleasant experiences did not end. Under the court's stern ruling, each one of them was compelled to pay for from ten to a dozen insertions, at full advertising rates, announcing the terms of the sentence in the Paris press—a deliciously French touch; and also they were ordered to have a large poster setting forth the terms of the sentence firmly attached to the doors of their respective places of business, and kept there for the space of one year.

This last feature of the sentence is the best of all. A profiteer may pay a fine, and may even serve a short term in jail, and, although he won't like it, he will find it vastly more endurable than to be obliged publicly to advertise himself in the newspapers, and by show-bill posters on his place of business doors, as a conscienceless swindler, preying upon the needs of a public already staggering under its burdens.

Would that our own courts might take a leaf out of this particular chapter of French jurisprudence, and apply it where it would do the most good here at home!—Harvey's Weekly.

GERMAN "REPARATION"

The German representatives at the Spa conference, and their apologists elsewhere, have made much of the various supplies, machinery, livestock, etc., delivered by the Germans in compliance with the reparation terms of the Versailles treaty. The value of such "reparation" to the beneficiaries may be judged from this statement made by H. B. Fullerton, an American agricultural expert who has been doing work for the French government.

"The cattle and milk cows which the Germans have turned over to the French peasants under the peace treaty," he says, "have been found to be infected with hoof and mouth disease. As for chickens, I never knew there were so many midget bantam chickens in the world till I saw a German shipment of bantam fowls. The agricultural implements turned over are monstrosities which can never be used."

These cattle are not only useless in themselves, but they infect the French herds. Those midget fowls are counted, chicken for chicken, against the fine, big well-bred chickens the Germans stole from the French peasants. Those farm implements are listed as balancing the good French implements taken or destroyed by the invaders. The Germans are simply cheating.

In everything the same old story! Always hedging and shifting and pretending to fulfill the peace terms, and never doing it! If Germany had any sincere intent to make reparation, and would give evidence, in any particular, of honesty doing the best she could make good the harm so ruthlessly done, the Allies would be far more disposed to soften the penalty, and the world would lend a more sympathetic ear.

MOST POLICIES FOR MOTHERS

SOME INTERESTING FIGURES FROM REPORT OF BUREAU OF WAR-RISK INSURANCE.

MOST SOLDIERS UNMARRIED

More Than 90 Per Cent of Deaths Covered by Contract Insurance Were in the Army—Suicides Among Commissioned Officers.

By JAMES P. HORNADAY.

Washington.—Mothers named as sole beneficiaries in life insurance policies taken out by their boys in the bureau of war-risk insurance constituted 46.6 per cent of the whole, or a group almost as large as the sum of all other groups of all other beneficiaries named, according to a report by the bureau concerning the deaths and disabilities incurred by members of the American forces at home and abroad in relation to the payment of military and naval insurance and compensation as provided by the war-risk insurance act. The group of fathers is second in size and the group of wives occupies third place, being only 10 per cent. The fact that the majority of the beneficiaries were parents, it is pointed out, was due to the army being made up largely of unmarried men.

Up to June 30, 1919, a total of 117,885 insurance claims have been received and of these 105,050 have received awards, while 11,532 claims were still pending at that date and only 1,000 had failed to establish any claim upon which the bureau could act. The report shows that the average duration of over 105,000 policies analyzed, that is the length of time from the date the policy became effective to time of death or permanent total disability occurred, has proved to be five and one-half months between the time of taking out insurance and death, and four months and twenty-one days between the taking out of the insurance and total permanent disability. In 3,360 cases death or disability occurred in the same calendar months in which the insurance was granted. The maximum losses in our forces occurred in October, 1918, the report shows, and the maximum of insurance payable for death and total permanent disability during that month amounted to $298,895,940.

Nearly All Deaths in Army.

Of 99,625 deaths covered by contract insurance, over 90 per cent were among those insured serving in the army, in comparison with nearly 3 per cent serving in the marine corps, and with over 6 per cent among the insured serving in the navy. The average amount of insurance policies held by members of the four principal army and naval establishments upon which claims have been awarded up to June 30, 1919, is shown to be $9,243 in the army, $9,017 in the marine corps, $8,435 in the navy and $6,845 in the coast guard.

A striking excess percentage of suicides among commissioned officers is revealed by the report, which shows that of the 633 suicides in all ranks 78, or 12 per cent, were among officers. However the mortality of this class constituted only 5 per cent of the total number of deaths. Otherwise stated, of the 5,200 deaths among officers 78, or 1.5 per cent, were suicides, while of the 99,276 deaths among privates and noncommissioned officers only 555 or 0.6 per cent were suicides. Almost 40,000 of the cases on which the insurance and compensation is being paid under the provision of the war-risk insurance policy the deaths or disabilities occurred in the months of September, October and November of 1918. This is covered by insurance to the amount of $538,226,646.

Compensation Awards Made.

Apart from the insurance which is bought and paid for and also the compensation payable under the provisions of the war-risk insurance act for total and permanent disability is the compensation awarded by the government whenever death or disability occurred as a result of military or naval service on or after October 6, 1917. Of the 243,690 claims of this class received, up to the time the report was completed, 25,074 death claims had been awarded, and 33,153 claims for compensation, so that a total of 58,127 cases were receiving compensation at that time. The total number of cases which have received favorable and unfavorable action is 124,110, which still leaves 119,250 out of the 243,690 cases submitted as pending at the time the report was completed.

The report shows further that as in the case of the beneficiaries of war-risk insurance the number of mothers as beneficiaries who are in receipt of compensation on account of death of the person in the service exceeds the number of wives as single beneficiaries receiving compensation, but the awards to the 8,094 mothers amounts to $163,092.75 as against $179,918.46 paid monthly to 7,177 wives, this being due to the fact that a dependent mother receives less compensation than a wife. The total monthly payment being made on all cases where compensation for death in the service was being made is $678,204.87. The total monthly payment of compensation being made on all cases for disability as of June 30, 1919, was $1,050,202.32.

Infinitesimal.

It's a very small part of the trouble in the world that is caused by keeping one's mouth shut.—Boston Evening Transcript.

Man Power and Gasoline Prices

SO LONG as the acute shortage of man-power in the United States continues, the demand for gasoline power will continue to increase.

Every increase in the demand for gasoline power will affect the price of gasoline, because, though petroleum production is continually increasing, it is not keeping pace with the demand for gasoline.

The latest figures available illustrating this point are for March, 1920.

Petroleum Production:	Petroleum Consumption:
Daily Average	Daily Average
1,177,129 bbls.	1,417,129 bbls.
Total for Month	Total for Month
36,491,000 bbls.	43,930,999 bbls.

If production continues for the rest of the year at the rate established in the first quarter, the total production of petroleum for 1920 will be in excess of 410,000,000 barrels.

If consumption continues for the rest of the year at the rate established in the first quarter, the total consumption of petroleum for the year 1920 will be in excess of 495,000,000 barrels.

Or, for the year 1920, consumption may be expected to exceed domestic production of petroleum by 85,000,000 barrels.

Because of its high-powered organization, trained through years of experience to the interpretation of conditions, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is anticipating increased need for gasoline and is bending every effort to supply the people of the Middle West with the gasoline they need.

It means much to the Middle West to be able to use freely that most important of all labor-saving devices—the automotive machine.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that its greatest service lies in providing at all times, everywhere, and at the lowest possible prices, the gasoline needed to operate these engines of production.

MILL CITY MAYOR VISITS IN BRAINERD

Minneapolis Executive Tours State
to Tell of Minnesota's Vacation
Advantages

EXPLAINS MINNEAPOLIS PLAN

Cars of Foreign States Tourists Tagged. They are Registered and Given Advice

Mayor J. E. Meyers and party of Minneapolis were in the city today
and in a talk to Brainerd business men at the Chamber of Commerce, the Mill City executive explained the Minneapolis plan of welcoming foreign states tourists and giving them information regarding Minnesota's wealth of lakes and recreational facilities.

In the mayor's touring party were Mayor Meyers and wife, his private secretary A. A. Erickson and Mrs.
M. R. Muir of Chicago. The party left Minneapolis Saturday, were in Duluth Saturday evening and left there Sunday and arrived in Deer-wood in the afternoon. They came to Brainerd Monday and left in the afternoon for Walker. Other towns to be visited are Walker, Park Rapids, Wadena and Itasca Park, and on the return home Little Falls and St.
Cloud on Wednesday.

The Mayor's Tourist Welcome committee of Minneapolis has registered 2,900 tourists from other states since it was formed two months ago.

"We expect to register 10,000 before the summer is over", Arvid A.
Erickson, secretary of the mayor,
said.

Mayor Meyers is visiting the mayors and business men's committees of northern cities to interest them in the Minneapolis plan of boosting Minnesota as a tourist state.

Mayor Meyers stated: "When the tourists register, we give them maps and information of every sort and also a radiator tag with the words
'1920 Minneapolis Visitor'. The object is to advertise touring in Minnesota as the climate is advertised in California. We are boosting the Babcock amendment for good roads and advocating the selling of service to tourists so that they will remember Minnesota."

"The Minneapolis plan was the first of its kind in the country. The committee has registered as high as 99 and 100 tourists a day. Policemen aid the committee by stopping tourists and sending them to the committee office for the visitor tags."

"The Minneapolis bureau," continued the mayor, "is also keeping a record of any discourtesies shown tourists, of over-charging and also of the commendations made. There have been received occasional adverse reports on hotels and one
'kick' on a garage."

"Headquarters have been established in the Gateway building in Minneapolis. Policemen will stop all tourist cars in Minneapolis and attend them, asking them to register at the Gateway building. Officers have been instructed to extend all possible courtesies to visitors."

"In the instruction given the tourists they receive copies of the state names and state laws, a list of Minneapolis, 'don'ts' regarding the state and Minneapolis, routes in Minneapolis etc. At present a plan of a two, three and four day trips is being worked out."

Hearty cooperation was vouchsafed
Mayor Meyers in Brainerd.

"Brainerd" said Mayor Meyers, "is in the finest section in the lake region of Minnesota, but there are many of you people that do not know it. Brainerd is better located than Detroit or Alexandria. There is no end to the resources in the Brainerd district."

MISSING WOMEN IS BEING SOUGHT

Wendell Smith, who lives a mile west of Leona, was in Little Falls and notified Chief Clark of the disappearance of his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Kappel of Brainerd, says the Little Falls Transcript.

She left home some time last week.
She was recently discharged from the asylum at Fergus Falls and was employed at Brainerd. She was described as weighing about 120 pounds, build, has brown eyes, is light complexioned, has red hair and wore a light suit at the time she left. She is about 35 years old.

Gave it to Children and Grandchildren

Mrs. V. M. Katz, 502 Armondale
St., N. S., Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I gave Foley's Honey and Tar to my little grandson when he had a bad cold and it did him lots of good. I used a lot of it when my own children were small." It must have merit to hold the leadership generation after generation. H. P. Dunn, druggist.

SPEEDWELLS 3, FT. RIPLEY 2

Speedwells Hit Hannon in Sixth and Ninth Innings and Win
Out

LENEAU PITCHED A GOOD GAME

Struck Out 6 Men. Hannon Struck Out 10. Good Umpiring Was Also Feature

The prediction for a good game of baseball on Sunday between the Speedwells and Fort Ripley was correct, and a very interesting game was witnessed by a large number of fans. The weather was ideal for a ball game and the excitement was intense at all times during the game.

The Fort secured two runs, one in the fourth inning and one in the sixth and the Speedwells came back and hit Hannon for two in the sixth tying the game and drove over the winning run in the ninth. It looked for a while as though it would go into an extra inning game.

The Speedwells are an All-Brainerd team and deserve the support of the entire town as they have been playing for the past seven years, and are a live and manly bunch of ball players. All the support they ask is every business house in the city to purchase one or more tickets for the games when played at home. They have lost only one game this season,
and that was to the fast Backus nine 2 to 0 and they intend to reverse this score when that nine comes to Brainerd in the near future.

Major Elkins and Mr. Barber, official umpires, were good on all decisions, and both teams were very well satisfied.

LeNeau pitched a good game for the Speedwells and struck out 6 men.
Hannon for the Fort was in good form and struck out 10 men.

The next home game will be with Pequot on Sunday August 8th. Score at Pequot June 27 was Speedwells
2, Pequot 2, ten innings.

CAPITAL INCREASE BRD. STATE BANK

$25,000 to $50,000, and Already the Bank Has on Hand a Surplus
Fund of $10,000

TOTAL RESOURCES ARE $620,000

New Building to be Built as Soon as Building Conditions are More Favorable

Last week, at the regular meeting of directors of the Brainerd State
P. B. announcement was made that all the required steps had been taken to enable the bank now to do business on the basis of the new capitalization. The capital of the bank has been increased from $25,000 to $50,000, and already there is a surplus fund of $10,000.

The advantage to the patrons of the bank of the larger capitalization and the rapidly growing surplus is that the bank can then legally loan them greater sums than is possible at banks with smaller capital and surplus funds. The statutes limit a loan to a patron to fifteen per cent of the capital and surplus, and in this instance it figures to $9,000.

The total resources of the bank have constantly increased and are now $620,000, which makes this bank rank with the few big banks in this part of the state. The deposits today total over half a million dollars.

As soon as conditions for building
are more favorable, a new building will be erected where now are the Polson Music Co. and Judd Wright &
Son. The building erected will contain all the necessary conveniences of a modern banking institution. A few specially designed offices will occupy the second floor.

Reality of Disease Germs.

Replying to a protest from Lee White, publicity department of the Christian Scientists, against remarks on the death from diphtheria of a girl under Christian Science treatment, the Journal of the American Medical Association says: "Had the nine-year-old girl been buried beneath a load of bricks, even Mr. White would have suggested, we believe, that before giving the infant child 'Christian Science' treatment—'absent' or 'present'
—the bricks should be removed. What
Mr. White fails to realize is that a Klebs-Loeffler bacillus is just as material an object as a brick. It does material damage. It is true, not by its material weight, but by the equally material toxins it produces."

ERICSSON SOON TO BE HONORED

MEMORIAL TO GREAT SWEDISH-AMERICAN INVENTOR WILL BE IN WASHINGTON.

PROJECT DELAYED BY WAR

James Earle Fraser is the Artist-Creator of the Imposing Monument to Be Erected in the National Capital.

By JAMES P. MORNADAY.
Washington.—Work soon will be started on another dignified art monument that is to be a part of the ensemble of government-built art and architectural masterpieces extending west from the capitol to the Potomac river and lying just south of the White House. The new structure will be the memorial to John Ericsson, the inventor and builder of the famous Monitor.

Its nearest neighbor will be the new Lincoln memorial that is to be dedicated next winter, but others in the ensemble are the Washington monument, the new National museum,
the Smithsonian Institution, the Freer Art gallery and the Pan-American building.

The Ericsson memorial is in honor of the man who first applied to navigation the principle of condensing steam and returning the water to the holler; who invented the screw propeller, thus revolutionizing navigation;
who built for the United States government the screw-propelled warship Princeton, the pioneer of modern naval construction.

The project of erecting the memorial for Ericsson was started several years ago, but was delayed by the war.
Congress appropriated $35,000 on the understanding that Swedes in this country would raise the remainder.
Since the armistice, Swedish societies
scattered over the whole country, have raised $25,000 and now the work is ready to begin. With the co-operation of the National Fine Arts commission, the site and character of the Ericsson memorial were determined upon after a year's consideration.

Fraser's Design Chosen.

James Earle Fraser, popularly known because of his design of the buffalo nickel, won the competition and is the artist-creator of the memorial. He also is known as the artist who made a fine Roosevelt bust, and
"The End of the Trail." The judges of the contest, in which several sculptors and artists of international reputation were competitors, were Andrew O'Connor and George Gray Barnard, sculptors; Harvey Corbett, architect,
and August Franzen and Henry Reu-terdahl, painters.

The mental attributes of Ericsson were, as conceived by Mr. Fraser, vision, adventure and labor. Vision for the man who, in his mind's eye,
saw what had not yet been seen; adventure for the man who dared forth into this unknown realm to bring therefrom new liberties and capacities for man; and labor for the man whose day-by-day effort, whose minute patience cut the road between him and achievement. These qualities are represented by three figures grouped compactly about the Tree of Yggdras-sil, the "world tree" of Norse mythology.

The base of the memorial is a circular floor, 50 feet in diameter, upon which are inscribed in bronze the points of the marine compass. Set in the middle of this is a square base, 20 feet by 20 feet, which in its turn supports a smaller square.

Ericsson and Symbolic Figures.

The seated figure of Ericsson is placed on the larger square so that the back of his chair is against the smaller one, which is indented to admit it. His entire figure is contemplative. The elbow of the left arm rests on the smaller base, but the hand, which is closed, is posed against the body in a way that suggests readiness for instant action whenever the mind shall demand it. Around the top of this smaller base runs this inscription: "In appreciation of John Ericsson, inventor and builder of the Monitor; he revolutionized navigation by his invention of the screw propeller."

Set upon this base is the circular pedestal from which rise the three symbolic figures, towering high above
the man whose mind and genius they typify. The center of the compact group is the Tree Yggdrasil, which is stunted, gnarled, massive, as trees of the far North often are. Of the three figures, Vision rises directly behind and above Ericsson. It is a woman, whose far-seeing eyes and parted lips betoken that perception and reception
of an idea that we call inspiration,
while her delicately modeled body,
with its suggestion of a quickly in-taken breath, gives the same thought its more literal rendering. This figure is purely idealistic, belonging to the realm of thought of any land. Adventure is the old Norse hero, with shield and breast-plate and sword, and his helmet winged. Labor is as definitely American—the working out in terms of human usefulness all that vision
could foretell and adventure can reach.
It is the figure of an iron worker.
These three are made a unit by their mutual relation to the Tree of Life.

Ancient Greeks were very fond of bare hunting.

KEEPS YOUR KITCHEN COOL IN SUMMER!

The triple-walled oven, the insulated oven door, the liberal use of asbestos insulation (double the quantity used in other high-grade ranges) and the entire design of the Round Oak Chief Range are calculated to hold heat in where it belongs. The kitchen comfort that it affords a woman in hot weather, as a result, is well worth the slight extra cost of these advantages.

ROUND OAK
CHIEF BOILER IRON RANGE

This range has many other advantages, as you would expect of anything made by the famous Round Oak Folks.
